

FAMINE

Since I returned to Uganda I have seen the ravages of drought and famine . There has been no rain for two seasons. People have no food those that can buy have to go far to buy. Corn and bean prices have doubled and tripled. Thank you to those that have helped us. We bought corn and beans for Victory Academy to at least feed these children one meal. $100 buys a sack of beans $75 sack of corn . These are some headlines ....millions of Ugandans in 45 districts starving got reports.

BELOW ARE SOME OF THE HEADLINES IN THE UGANDAN NEWSPAPERS.

Uganda: Famine Looms Large As Dry Spell Persists in Busia District

Busia — Hundreds of families in Busia District are suffering from food shortage after a prolonged dry spell led to withering of crops The food shortage has led to escalating food prices. A kilogram of dry cassava goes for Shs1, 400 which is unaffordable to many. Several children are not going to school because parents cannot provide scholastic materials.

Famine puts 1.3 million Ugandans on verge of DEATH
